Macedon School News

GRADE 1

During December we brought pencils and pads for the Junior Red Cross Christmas boxes. So many of us received beautiful toys for Christmas, that now we are planning to have a toy exhibit.

We have nearly finished learning and writing our Capitals. Soon we will start on the small letters.

Our new third pre-primer books came Monday. We have read "We Look and See" and "We Work and Play."

GRADES 2 and 3

During our conference period this morning we decided to have a doll show on Thursday. We expect it to be great fun.

We have some people who have handed in perfect spelling tests every Friday since this new period started. In second grade they are: Fred Donner, Mary Murphy, Kenny Scheele, Billy Scheele, Dorothy Hamilton, Esther Dadson and Dale Young. In third grade they are: Rosemary Cahill, Mary Natale and Nancy VanderMallie.

GRADE 4

Early in December we sent a box of cards, pictures and blank scrap-books to the children in Iola Sanatorium. James Murphy wrote a letter to accompany them and has received a note of thanks to the grade. We should begin soon to collect pictures, cards, etc. for another year.

We presented a play "Gifts from the Heart" as part of our school's program. We were sorry that Carleton Palmer's illness prevented his taking a part in it. We had a happy time with our Christmas tree in the morning. Shirley Burke, James Murphy, Tommy Maxwell, John Hess and Fred McCall brought their small sisters and brothers as guests. Marilyn Brigham's mother sent us a tray of delicious cookies which made a regular party of our celebration. We thought it was most kind of her and will make our first language lesson after vacation an occasion to tell her so in a "Thank you" note.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen class celebrated with a party Friday morning, Dec. 20, at which they ate ice cream, cake and candy, and exchanged gifts for which they had previously drawn names. They presented their homeroom teacher with a book as a Christmas gift.

The class, all of which are members of English I, are now observing Courtesy Week by reading a literature unit on "Family Relationships," and how courtesy is applicable therein.

LIBRARY CLUB

The recently organized Library Club under the leadership of President Betty Jo Baker, will now, after the Christmas vacation, take over most of the duties in the library which have up to this time been the responsibility of the Senior Class. The Seniors will, however, continue their volunteer work as monitors until the end of the year. The Library Club members will assist in reading shelves, keeping the library neat, seeing that bulletin boards and showcases are appropriately filled, reminding students of overdue books, etc. Following are the committees set up for these purposes: Overdue books, Dorothy Knapp; magazines, Mary Schultz; bulletin boards, Lindy Arp, Yvonne Ford, Betty Ann Adams, Charleen Scheik; library appearance, Cora-lyn Briggs; processing, Howard Wiedrick.

On Wednesday noon, December 18, the members of the Library Club ate lunch in the library as a Christmas celebration. It was reported at this time that, through an activity, the club has already earned about ten dollars which will be spent in some way on beautifying the library or adding to its books. Isabella Barbaggio was chairman of the activity which netted this sum.

The Club is looking forward to the next weeks of school as busy ones for its members.

ROOM 207

Home room no. 207 asks its readers' pardon for the light vein of its column this week. It has been vacation time, you know.

Lindy Arp found the skating good with falling, hard. She also had time to read "The Robe" and Costain's "Ride with Me."

Betty Jo Baker and Dorothy Knapp worked during vacation but took time to spend New Year's Day in Clyde with friends.

Helen Doyle had a job in the factory at Egypt and got her relaxation on the skating rink and at the movies.

Margaret Morrell turned her two weeks to a worthwhile pursuit — a job in G.L.F., as did Jean Mosher also.

Ardean Roets went to Elmira for the first part of his vacation.

Mary Sapienza did not find staying in Macedon dull at all, what with the Sapienza brothers home and one of Jimmie Clark's fine New Year parties thrown in for good measure.

Fred Smith reports that he and George Tranka spent a delightful New Year's Eve without benefit of feminine companionship!

Mary Schultz visited in McGraw, near Cortland, and enjoyed attending school there.

Edward Straight put another thousand miles on his faithful car in celebration of Richard Robert's furlough.

The greater part of Gerald Crowley's holiday was spent at the dentist's.

Vincent Burns says he had fun on New Year's Eve.

Lucille Wawro skated at Cobb's Hill and found time for Marquand's new book, "B. F.'s Daughter" and Pearl Buck's "Pavilion of Women."

Elizabeth Wright slept late, ate good holiday food and read a lot. Miss Turner attended the N.Y.S. Council of Social Studies Teacher's at Syracuse.

SENIORS

The senior class will hold another round and square dance Wednesday, January 29.

M.H.S. Takes League Game from Walworth

On Friday evening, December 20, the Macedon Varsity beat Walworth Varsity 58-33. This was the first league win against two losses. Macedon was ahead at the beginning and never was troubled the remainder of the game. Gerry Crowley and Fred Smith led the team with 21 and 16 points respectively.

Keeping true to form the J. V.'s won 47-22. This was their seventh straight win. Dillon and Wiedrick led their team with 12 and 13 points respectively.

Macedon will resume the league competition on Friday when they will play North Rose on the home court.

A. L. Basketball Team to Play Two Games Next Week

The Philip Steiger Post, American Legion League Basketball team will play the Wolcott Legion League team in a Wayne County League game at Macedon, Monday, Jan. 13, at 7:30 p. m. The same evening, the Wolcott reserves will play the Macedon reserve team.

Wednesday, Jan. 16, Macedon Legion team will travel to Clyde where they will take on the winners of the first round in what promises to be a hotly contested game, as Macedon finished second in the first round and is out for revenge in this one.

"Shooting stars" are NOT stars! (Shooting star is the popular name for a meteor, a mass of matter from celestial space, which, because of its rapid motion, becomes luminous by friction with the atmosphere of the earth. This phenomenon is known as a meteorite or aerolite if it reaches the earth.)
