Let's Give Dollars As Well as Dimes The March of Dimes campaign is now in full swing in Macedon, coin collectors having been placed in all places of business in the community. The work this year is under the direction of Rev. Homer E. Cole of Macedon Center as chairman, and Mrs. Richard L. Maxwell assisting him. Last year's total amount from Macedon was $35.00 and it seems that we ought to do much better this year. Let everyone give, not only dimes but dollars; you may make your contribution direct to either Rev. Cole or Mrs. Maxwell.

Savannah Out for Scaps In A. L. League Game The Macedon American Legion basketball team will meet the Savannah Legion team in a return basketball game at the Macedon High School court on Tuesday, Jan. 28. In the first game played at Savannah, Macedon easily defeated the Savannah team, but they have been reinforced since then, and are now out to even up the series.

Baptist Choir Lays Plans for Easter Twenty-two members and friends of the Macedon Baptist choir sat down to their quarterly supper meeting on Monday evening. Plans for Easter were discussed, and also a substantial sum was pledged to the World Mission Crusade. A feature of this meeting was the presentation of a wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Olney, Mr. Olney having been a faithful member of the choir for many years. After the meeting games were enjoyed.
