

Macedon

Rev. Frieda M. Ehrlich, Correspondent
Ganargua unit of the Home Bureau will have a meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 5; place to be announced. This will be the third lesson in making a simple dress.

Robert Blazey of Buffalo was the Friday overnight guest of his mother, Mrs. Nelson H. Blazey, and aunt, Miss Ella Blazey.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Welch and grandchildren, Richard and Mary Murphy, were Sunday afternoon callers on Mrs. Welch's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davies, Manchester.

Frank E. Warren spent Sunday afternoon and evening with his cousin, Frank Buck and Mrs. Buck, Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fenner, Rochester, were Sunday afternoon and evening callers on Mr. and Mrs. Bert Erhardt.

The Brownie troop which disbanded last September has given the balance of its funds, $2, to the March of Dimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Somerset Sr. and daughter, Miss Margaret, were the Sunday guests of another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Root, Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holst and children were the Sunday guests of Mr. Holst's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Holst and family of Rochester.

Mrs. Sherman J. Baker called on her sister, Mrs. Fred Olney and son, Albert, East Rochester, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gauthier and children of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lynch and daughter, Dian of Newark, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lynch were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lynch and family.

Members of the Bridge Club, Mesdames William G. Thistlethwaite, Schuyler Hibbard, Charles T. Albert W. Stevenson, Carl Stevenson, Kolb Payne, Fred Smith, Charles Pronest and Joseph Gravano entertained their husbands at Sunday evening supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Thistlethwaite.

The Esther Spafford Officers' Club of Eureka Chapter, O.E.S., will meet on Monday, Feb. 3, at the home of Mrs. William G. Thistlethwaite. The following committee will be in charge: Mesdames William G. Thistlethwaite, William Youngman, Frank Richards, Albert W. Stevenson, Morris Dean and George DeForrest.

Mrs. Harold Doeberner entertained a number of friends from Fairport and Macedon on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Doeberner's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Young were Sunday guests of Mrs. Young's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ruster and son, William, East Rochester. William Ruster returned to his home in Lakeland, Fla., Sunday evening after spending two weeks with his parents.

Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doeberner were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Doeberner, West Walworth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kemp, Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rudovitz and daughter of Baldwinville and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gauler and son of Rochester.

Legion Basketball Team Announces Heavy Schedule

The Philip Steiger American Legion basketball team will continue its heavy schedule by playing the strong Walworth representatives in the Wayne County League on Saturday, Feb. 1, on the Macedon high school court, with a preliminary game starting at 7:30 p. m., between the reserves of these two old rivals. This is the first meeting of these teams in several years and much interest is being shown by their respective followers.

On Tuesday, Feb. 4, the Wolcott American Legion team will travel to Macedon with their league representatives and their reserve teams for two games against the Steiger teams. Macedon will wind up the week by playing two games at Wolcott Friday, Feb. 7. In last week's game Marion Legion team defeated the Steiger team to even up the series, and the big attraction of the evening was the fast floor work of the old timers, but their inability to shoot caused them to lose to their younger opponents, the Steiger reserves. Most of the glory went to Brigham and Payne.

Married 63 Years

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Thistlethwaite celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on Friday, Jan. 24, and entertained their immediate family in the afternoon. Those from out of town were: Mrs. Arthur Behme of Rochester, Mrs. Ellis Gay and Mrs. Byron Durfee of East Rochester.

Miss Shirley Lynch spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Briggs of Fairport.

Mrs. George DeForrest was in Syracuse on Friday evening and attended the concert rendered by the St. Olaf Choir of Minnesota.

Miss Eleanor Curran, Rochester, Kenneth Blazey, Macedon Center and Charles Blazey were Sunday afternoon callers on Mrs. Nelson H. Blazey and Miss Ella Blazey. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Glover spent the weekend with Mrs. Glover's mother in Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bassage of Walworth were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cator of Rochester, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Cator of Palmyra on Sunday, the occasion being their 29th wedding anniversary.

Miss Johanna Wilson of Rochester is spending some time with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Thistlethwaite and son, Kirt.

Green and White Loses to Marion

Last Friday saw the green and white clad boys lose a game to Marion, 31-35. It was a close game most of the way. Marion sprang to lead on three quick baskets in the first minute of the third quarter and never gave it up. Jerry Crowley and Don Young led the attack for the losers while Bob Schutt was high for the orange and black. Macedon J.V.'s Defeat Marion.

The Macedon J.V.'s beat Marion J.V.'s in the preliminary 21-16. Macedon was ahead all the way but only by two or three points. In scoring their ninth win of the season Red Wiedrick was high scorer with 11 points.

Friday, Jan. 31, Macedon will play host to Ontario.
